stations between the Dadeland South and Government Center stations.

PARKING AT METRORAIL STATIONS

- Remember your parking space number. Before entering the station, have $4 in exact change. Parking receipt machines don't accept dollar bills. Change machines are located at the entrance of Metrorail stations.
- Once you pay your trip fare and enter the station, look for the parking receipt machines. Enter your space number. Then deposit $4. Take your receipt and keep it until returning to your car. There's no need to place the receipt on your dashboard.
- Metropass, Discount Metropass, Golden Passport, and Patriot Passport users can purchase a $10 monthly Metrorail parking permit. Metrorail stations with parking areas offer free parking for people with disabilities who have the state-issued Americans with Disabilities Act parking permit. All permits must hang from the rearview mirror.

PAYING YOUR METRORAIL FARE

- Deposit the regular fare of $2 in coins (or use a token) in the slot on the front panel of the fare gate. Or insert your Metropass, Discount Metropass, Golden Passport, Patriot Passport, or transfer, with arrows forward, into the slot on the front of the fare gate, or show your STS ID card to the Metrorail security officer. Customers using wheelchairs can ride Metrorail without showing a pass or STS ID card.
- Retrieve your pass from the top of the fare gate, push through the fare-gate arm and enter immediately. The fare gate remains open for only 15 seconds after your fare is deposited.
- Save on every trip using transit tokens. Buy tokens from the change machines at Metrorail stations.

RIDING AT THE REDUCED FARE

- First insert your Metrorail reduced-fare permit, arrows forward, into the front slot of the fare gate. Then deposit the $1 reduced fare.

- Or insert your Discount Metropass, Golden Passport, or Patriot Passport, with arrows forward, into the slot on the front of the gate. Senior citizens and people with disabilities who have difficulty entering through turnstile fare gates pay using the turnstile fare gate closest to the wheelchair-accessible gate. Once your fare is paid, enter through the wheelchair-accessible gate. Contact a security officer when assistance is needed. If no one is available, pick up the blue passenger-assistance telephone at the security officer's booth and ask for help.

GETTING TO THE PLATFORM

- All rail stations have elevators, escalators, and/or stairs. Use the call button to alert station security if you need assistance in using the elevator, or if there is an emergency on the platform level.
- Voice announcements and signs provide information on the status of elevators at Metrorail stations. When an elevator is out of service, board the train again and ask a security officer at the next station to arrange for free transportation, which will arrive within 30 minutes from your request being received.
- Most stations have a center platform with tracks on both sides. However, Metrorail's Civic Center, Santa Clara, Brownsville, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Northside, and Tri-Rail stations have split platforms with train tracks running through the middle. To get to the platform in these six stations, take the elevator, escalator, or stairs to the second level. Once on the second level, you must locate the elevator, escalator, or stairs leading up to the platform of your direction of travel. Listen for announcements or look for signs that indicate 'Southbound Dadeland' or 'Northbound Palmetto.'

BOARDING FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

- The tactile tiles alert customers who are blind and visually impaired that they are getting close to the platform edge. For direct access to the reserved wheelchair space, enter a train car through the first set of doors. Other passengers with disabilities and senior citizens will find seats reserved for them next to every door.

CALL BUTTONS

- Every Metrorail car has three call buttons, which are located at the wheelchair space next to the first set of doors, next to the clear plastic panels, and next to the second and third set of doors. Call buttons may be used to alert the operator when you need additional time to leave the train. Call the operator several stations before you are ready to exit the train. You may also use the call buttons in case of an emergency.

BIKE & RIDE ON TRANSIT

- Cyclists who bring their bicycles on Metrorail must obtain a Bike & Ride permit. You must be at least 12 years of age to obtain a permit. Security personnel at all Metrorail stations can issue Bike & Ride permits during operating hours. A parent or guardian must accompany cyclists under 18 years of age who apply for a Bike & Ride permit. Stop at the security officer's booth and show a valid photo ID. Complete and sign the application, and give it to the officer. The bike permit is issued immediately. Cyclists must be familiar with bicycle safety rules.
- Be ready to show your permit anytime at the request of a transit official. Bikes are permitted only in the rear section of the last car of each train. For your safety, bikes are not allowed on station escalators.
- To request a Bike & Ride permit, call 786-469-5392, weekdays, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
